Bobby McCutcheon Joins Staff of State Senator John Cauthorn

JEFFERSON CITY, MO- Senator John Cauthorn, R-Mexico, today welcomed the addition of Bobby McCutcheon as a legislative intern for the 2004 regular session of the Missouri General Assembly.

McCutcheon is currently a junior Political Science major at the University of Missouri-Columbia. He plans on becoming a member of the Missouri State Highway Patrol after graduation.

“Politics is something I’ve always been interested in, and having the opportunity to work with Senator Cauthorn is very exciting,” McCutcheon said. “Being able to see how state government works first hand will be both informative and educational. I’m truly looking forward to the experience.”

Raised in Grant City, MO, McCutcheon currently resides in Sturgeon, MO with his wife Jennifer, and son Dylan.

Sen. Cauthorn represents Missouri’s 18th Senate District. Sen. Cauthorn can be reached in the Capitol at (573) 751-6858.
